*Commercial
Recycling
Can Save You Money!*

EDCO's recycling program makes doing the environmentally responsible thing easy and can likely reduce your waste disposal costs. How? If you implement a recycling program, your business may reduce the amount you currently pay for trash collection.

Commercial Recycling Can Save You Money!

By recycling, commercial customers can divert recyclable materials into separate, lower cost containers and can potentially help reduce waste collection service and fees.

A business with multiple weekly trash collection can typically save money by replacing more expensive trash containers with a lower cost recycling program. For example, if your business has two 3-cubic yard bins for waste serviced once a week, by adding a 3-cubic yard recycling bin to your service, you may be able to reduce your waste service to one 3-cubic yard bin once a week.

Contact EDCO today and “We’ll Take Care of It!”

- EDCO will evaluate the benefits and costs of a recycling program for your business with a FREE Waste Assessment.
- EDCO will develop a recycling collection program tailored to your specific need.
- EDCO will offer on-site recycling presentations for users supported by bilingual education materials, if needed.
